

International Conference

Disputed boundaries:
Claiming the land, shaping the landscape. From medieval to contemporary times

Thursday, 3rd June 2021

Online

Instituto de Historia, Centro de Ciencias Humanas y Sociales, CSIC

CLAHIS

Project FEDE

Disputed boundaries: Claiming the land, shaping the landscape. From medieval to contemporary times

Programme

Thursday, 3rd June 2021

Times in CET [GTM]

9:45 [8:45] Online registration

10:00 [9:00] Workshop opening

Session 1 Theoretical approaches to land claims

10:15 [9:15] José Miguel Lana-Berasain (Universidad Pública de Navarra)
Property, a thing or a bundle? Appropriation as a social struggle on hierarchies of rights. Some remarks from historical commons

10:45 [9:45] Lidia Montesinos Llinares (Ankulegi, Asociación Vasca de Antropología)
Community and property relations in Navarre from an ethnohistorical and legal anthropological perspective: the struggle for rights in the longue durée

11:15 [10:15] Álvaro Carvajal Castro (Instituto de Historia, CSIC)
Boundaries as Third Spaces: Land claims in early medieval northwestern Iberia

11:45 [10:45] Discussion

Break

Session 2 Land claims in history: from the Middle Ages to the early modern period (I)

12:30 [11:30] Luigi Provero (Università di Torino)
Land claims in high medieval Italy: the language of dependence and of exclusion (11th-13th centuries)

13:00 [12:00] Matthew McHaffie (University of St Andrews)
Warranty of land in Western France, from the charters to the coutumiers (1050–1270)

13:30 [12:30] Discussion

Lunch break

Session 3 Land claims in history: from the Middle Ages to the early modern period (II)

15:00 [14:00] Roland Viader (CNRS-Université de Toulouse)
Open fields and peasant communities in 13th century south-western France

15:30 [14:30] Margarita Fernández Mier (Universidad de Oviedo)
On muñones and finsos. Boundary disputes over grazing lands in the Cantabrian Mountains in the Late Middle Ages

16:00 [15:00] Briony McDonagh (University of Hull)
Riotous women: land, commons and gender in sixteenth-century England

16:30 [15:30] Discussion

17:00 [16:00] Julio Escalona (Instituto de Historia, CSIC)
Conclusions

17:15 [17:30] Closing remarks

Registration and Zoom Meeting details

The event will take place via Zoom, hosted by the Centro de Ciencias Humanas y Sociales (CSIC). There is no registration fee for attendees, but advanced registration is required. To register, please follow this link:

<https://rediris.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZcoce2hrjMjE9QdmqaSNhctwwOFz9-MkyZ>

For queries and further information: claims.mscaoproject@gmail.com